

THE BULL 1972

“BEHOLD, HOW GOOD
AND HOW PLEASANT IT IS FOR

BRETHREN TO DWELL TOGETHER IN”
“UNITY”

THE 1972 . . .

"Behold How Good It Is For Brethren To Dwell Together In Unity"

. . . As Brethren we have dwelled together for the last four years striving, all, for one common goal. The goal being that of betterment, prosperity — and experience found within the realms of an education.

As Brethren we met for the first time on the hallowed grounds of our cherished alma mater Johnson C. Smith University. We encountered problems and obstacles unbearable; without unity we could not have pulled through and reached the purpose of our academic endeavors.

To each of us, Johnson C. Smith has been our mother, our father our educator, and our friend in a time of need; one who claimed us as her own education-starved children. As children we became like brothers and sisters and finally uniting into one, Brethren.

Dwelling together has matured us all, each realizing that as Brethren we are different and that we each are motivated by different but common elements. We have been a reflection of a changing modernistic time; when each man and each woman has faced the fact, accepted the change and welcomed the challenge.

We soon will depart and go our separate ways leaving with a combination of intestinal fortitude, dedication, will power and anticipated curiosity of what the future may hold. Departing with the unforgettable thought . . . "Fair Smith where'er on earth we roam, Send forth thy constant ray, And let it beam with steadfast gleam, To lead us o'er Life's way . . ."

Brethren, as a final farewell, I challenge each of you to this our class motto:

... BULL

"Let a new earth rise. Let another world be born. Let a bloody peace be written in the sky. Let a second generation full of courage issue forth; let a people loving freedom come to growth. Let a beauty full of healing and strength of final clenching be the pulsing in our spirits and our blood. Let the martial songs be written, let the dirges disappear, let a race of men now rise and take control."

BULL 1972
Johnson C. Smith University

Dear Mr. Hines:

I sincerely congratulate you and your staff on a job well done. In the years ahead when memories grow dim and you find it necessary to see a picture to match it with a moment of glory at your alma mater you will have but to turn the pages of this marvelously done 1972 Bull.

I hope and pray that all Smithites who were here in 1971-72 will have happy memories of study; their participation in sports, clubs, Greek letter organizations, Student Government, dormitory councils, choir; and in other social and academic groupings. Moreover, I hope you will remember with fond affection you schoolmates, those administrators, teachers, and staff who took time to assist you in whatever way they could.

Above all, know that Smith did the best it could to help you on your way to the position you wish to eventually hold.

With every good wish to each of you, and may the Lord our God bless you in the years ahead, I remain

Sincerely,

IN MEMORIAM

Bruce Bernard Joe

A TRIBUTE TO BRUCE BERNARD JOE

Yesterday I glanced towards the sky and saw a black star,
A beautiful black star in the middle of the sky . . .
The longer I looked at the black dot the more clearly I Could see that the star wasn't a star but that it was Only a beautiful black bird.

A bird whose very feathers completely mystified my wonders . . .

Chirping happily and seemingly full of glee,
The blackbird left his sky-like perch and began to Fly towards me.

His glee of laughter turned to sadness — to sorrowfulness . . .
The beautiful black bird began to cry with pleas of innocence . . .
Telling the news of the sorrowful songs of death:

"Black Brother, Black Brother, whose life was like a beautiful flower —
A flower that blossoms only once and finally sheds its colorful petals . . .
Black Brother, Black Brother, he who was destined to be a beautiful flower Growing amidst the harlems of our times.
Death plucked from our beautiful flower garden, Our best, Our only,
Black Brother.
Black Brother, Black Brother, missed from day to day,
A Black Star, . . .

A Black Bird . . .

A Beautiful Black Brother!"

SENIORS

Out of the clear blue sky

Into a world unknown,

I wander — alone.

The sky is star-spangled and clouds are blown —

And yet — I wander, alone!

Just as the grass grows

Out under the clear blue sky . . .

I must face reality

Bye and bye.

So I wander back

To a world that is known . . .

From the clear blue sky

No longer alone.

DEDICATION . . .

Mr. Theodus L. Gunn
Recently Retired
University Librarian

To one whose sincerity of purpose, dedication to work, and attitude towards his fellowman has given inspiration to many — it is to one who has served the Johnson C. Smith University family well that we the Senior Class dedicate this Bull.

The graduating class of 1972 pause and begin to wait.
To honor one who has excelled, one we consider great.

One who in 1919, as a lad from Burlington,
came our way,
Biddle Institute, which later became J.C.S.U., where he received his B.A.

Then to Hampton Institute, this honored man was sent,
To further his education; his time was well spent.

In 1930, he was appointed as the first fulltime
librarian at J.C.S.U.,
Where he dwelled in unity, and where he remained loyal and true.

For over forty years he gave his best; his all, for the cause,
To honor a great man as he, we the class of '72 must pause.

Through five university presidents, three wars,
the depression, and major campus renovation,
He remained here and held the gold and blue high; unselfish dedication.

To him we can only say well done.
For we salute you,
Theodus Lafayette Gunn!

what is Black?

Black is opening your eyes

what is Black?

Black is watching the people

what is Black?

Black is shedding tears for the

what is Black?

Black is partying and singing

WE WEAR THE MASK

We wear the mask that grins and lies,
It hides our cheeks and shades our eyes. —

This debt we pay to human guile;
With torn and bleeding hearts we smile,
and mount with myriad subtleties

Why should the world be overwise,
In counting all our tears and sighs?

Nay, let them only see us, while

We wear the mask.

We smile, but. O great Christ, our cries

To Thee from tortured souls arise

We sing, but oh, the clay is vile

Beneath our feet, and long the mile;

But let the world dream otherwise,

We wear the mask.

Paul Laurence Dunbar

I, Too

I, too, sing America.

I am the darker brother.

They send me to eat in the kitchen

When company comes,

But I laugh,

And eat well,

And grow strong.

Tomorrow,

I'll be at the table

When company comes.

Nobody'll dare

Say to me,

"Eat in the Kitchen,"

Then.

Besides,

They'll see how beautiful I am

And be ashamed —

I, too, am America.

I came and I am here!

Love of what I am
and nothing more.

I have a heart
and cries which are not mine alone
I come from a country which does not yet exist.

Ah! I have love in plenty to give of what I am.

I!

NO IMAGES

She does not know
Her beauty,
She think her brown body
Has no glory.

If she could dance
Naked,
Under palm trees
And saw her image in the river
She would know.

But there are no palm trees
On the street,
And dishwater gives back no images.

IN MEMORIAM

Ronald Wallace
September 9, 1952 — September 15, 1971

An ever present smile and a hearty, "Hey, what's happening?" were the trademarks of the late Ronald Wallace.

A sophomore from Raleigh, North Carolina, Ron came to JCSU in September, 1970; he departed the campus and the ones he loved September 15, 1971.

In years to come, many will wonder, "Who the hell was Ron Wallace?"

Words can't answer their yet unasked questions. Superlatives abounded in his brief nineteen years of existence. From the beginning "Rocking Ron" was destined to be a big man. In his hometown they recall his Ligon High School achievements: honor student, salutatorian, class president, athlete, and all-around man.

Once at Smith, Ron wasted no time establishing himself as a "BMOC". Coming to the Queen City as an honor scholarship recipient, Ron participated in everything he was eligible for. He gained academic honors as a freshman, served as student assistant in the University Relations office, and pledged Omega Psi Phi.

On September 9, 1971, Ron turned nineteen; September 15, 1971, a massive cardiac arrest ended his brief journey through life. He died on the football field among numerous friends.

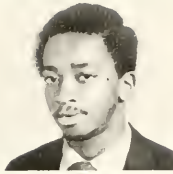

He never crossed Omega's burning sands but that was the only goal in life he never reached.

Oh, God, teach me that 60 seconds make a minute
And a hundred cents a dollar
Help me that I might earn my meal ticket on the square
And in so doing do unto others as I would have them do unto me.
And when comes the days
of darkening shades —
Make the ceremony brief
And the epitaph real simple —
Here lies a man.

"SLIM" threw the hombs against NCCU on Homecoming.

Dodging in, around, and through the Eagles, All-CIAA half back Bruce Duke brought the Golden Bulls over the hill.

Tight-End Bill Dullie (86) went from Goat to Herb in the Homecoming clash. Bills' recovery of an Eagle fumble gave the Herb its 18-14 victory margin.

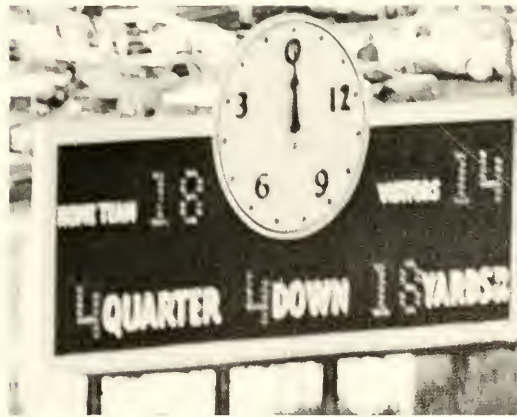

The Defenders:

The Golden Bulls Defensive unit was one of the nation's best in '71. Led by Stalwarts Gunn (21), Jones (66) Bailey (24), Turner (84), Johnson (75), and Logan (43), the Bulls completely stymied enemy attacks into their end-zones.

Jones (66) and Johnson (75) combine to De-feather Eagle QB Garvyn Stone.

RIGHT ON, BULLS!

Win, lose, or draw the CIAA's greatest fans stuck by Coach Eddie McGirts' Golden Bulls. The Herb finished the season with a 5-4 win-lose record for second place in the CIAA's Southern Division.

What would a game be without the "Nifty Fifty"? The JCSU Marching Band once again proved its reputation as the best small band in the south.

A BRUCE DUKE PORTFOLIO

Probably no runner in recent years has been as spectacular at JCSU as Sophomore Bruce Duke. The small, 5'8" speedster started the season on the bench but against Livingstone he got some play in the mud.

Instantly, Duke was a success. His cutting, jabbing, darting style of running captivated the Bulls crowd.

For his efforts, the Hickory, N. C. flash was selected All-CIAA.

no other choice but to come in FIRST

This was the year for the Bulls in Basketball led by Bob "Bubba" Butts the Bulls dribbled their way to the C.I.A.A. Tournament for the first time in five years. Coach Aiston and Coach Turner the mentors kept the show going proving that it could be done. With the expertise of Scopie Joplin, Cecil Bradshaw, Freddie Stewart, and newcomer George "Chick" Cooper the Bulls had no other choice but to win.

The theme "Something New" seemed to be quite catchy with the examples of Football, Basketball and a Women's Swimming Team. The season has come to an end, new names have been added on the C.I.A.A.'s list of well acclaimed players like "Chip" Sterling King making the famed list for his tremendous diving ability.

Yes, the season is nearly over but we have one last feat, that is to be C.I.A.A. Champs in track and the year will be a successful one. We have confidence that the Golden Bulls will be on TOP in every area of sports next season for we have the talent and the Coaches to carry us on to fame

THE GOLDEN BULL

What is this animal that
Roams the gridiron
Rules the hard wooden court,
Is equally at home in the waves,
Can continue to function in solid heat
Playing with a small white ball
Long after others have quit,
And can easily surpass
Any living animals speed of flight?

What is this animal
That commands so much respect,

That can exert such control
As to carry people momentarily to the valleys
Called Failure, Despair, and Hopelessness,
And then carry them to the mountain peaks
Of Victory, Joy, and Pride?

That animal is a bull.
Versatility and power make it special Determination.
That's what makes it Golden.

Grading System

Opinion By
Kevin Caldwell

J.C. Smith

I find a very pathetic, unusual, and serious situation here at the University. To me, it is a crime committed against the student body of the University as a whole. A consciousness persists among all of us. This consciousness is an attitude that is geared toward the wrong perspective. It is an attitude that prevails over the futures of many of the students. It is an injustice that is com-only by the elite hierarchy of the University, the faculty and the administration. They are the only individuals who have the power to oppress its students. This oppressiveness is stemmed from the grading system used by some of the instructors.

It seems apparent that grades are the only thing that is important to everyone at a Negro College. It is now a question of whether a student has been instructed and fed suitable knowledge for a knowledgeable, well-rounded, productive life. It is simply a system used to pacify and mislead the student into thinking that he has "gotten over." A Negro college is usually, on the surface, very traditional and unchanging in ideas, philosophes, and attitudes through the years of progress. Actually to a minor extent. Through m servation and analization of th hand, I find that the Negro C many rules of fairplay, esp dealing with the distribution ministration of grades.

Grades! grades! grades grade live solely for grades what the grade may be. It though everyone must beco conscious in order to surviv demic experience at the l Grades are a very potent we for about every conceivable r situation during the aca perience.

What's It All About

PETER S. JONES, III

Here at Smith, we have a competent core of academic instructors who seem more than willing to be of assistance to students. Yet, the general student attitude appears to be one of apathy. Unfortunately, most employers aren't apt to be impressed with apathetic persons.

School spirit has declined considerably in the last few years as many of the standards and policies at Smith have also fallen

Many students favor stiff few and an even more relaxed. The emphasis seems to be o ness instead of academic at need to place greater emphas affairs, higher academic stand less permissiveness, and defur ex-hibition of respect for l hood.

A Need For Faculty Eval

Teacher evaluation is a very important entity of a university, and this is an entity that is absent at Smith. An evaluation of the faculty would aid in the betterment of our faculty, because we would know who is an effective instructor and who is not.

We as black students at a predominantly black institution need the best instruction possible in order that we will be able to compete with others of a more intellectual capacity. We are far behind and we can not afford to be held back by unqualified instructors.

The best way to learn whether or not our students are acquiring the best of academic instruction is through an evaluation of the faculty.

Faculty, I don't like to question the teaching expertise here, but you were hired because you said you could teach, and if you are not effectively instructing the students then you are of no value to them which means you should be eliminated.

Smith is in a desperate need of some type of evaluation of the faculty and we definitely need in the immediate future

Observations

Political campaigns are designedly made into emotional orgies which endeavor to distract attention from the real issues involved, and they actually paralyze whatever slight powers of cerebration man can normally muster

WOMEN OR GIRLS?

On March 5, 1972 Theresa Howell, a Junior Smithite, majoring in English, was the kick-off speaker for Women's Week. Theresa's speech threw several remarks questioning whether Smith ladies were women or girls. The speech was very upsetting to many Smith women and brought about cocetra among them. Below is one letter received by the editor of this paper in reference to Theresa's speech. The letter was unsigned.

Dear Miss Davis,

This letter is in reference to the outrageous speech made by Theresa Howell, Sunday, March 5, at the breakfast, opening Women's Week.

I would like to direct this question to Miss Howell — Who died and left you an expert on the qualifications designating womanhood? I, as a Smith Woman, do not appreciate your shurring remarks. ie. There are too many girls on Smith's campus and not enough women.

I would also like to ask Miss Howell, in regards to another one of her ridiculous irrelevant remarks. ie — I have seen the places Smith women go — if you were not there yourself how would you know — how many or how few Smith women were there.

I feel that a very important aspect of womanhood is to be versatile enough to enjoy life whether its roller skating down the halls of Liston Hall or on the ceiling of Liston Hall. Being able to carry yourself in a manner becoming to a lady is of the most important factor.

For that matter, Miss Howell, I have seen you in situations that would not allow you to be labeled a woman or a girl.

I personally would love to know — what you consider the true qualities of a woman. Could your decision be based on. (1) The number of men she has? or (2) The amount of cheese she eats? What exactly do you consider a woman?

Please don't get me wrong Miss Howell, I appreciate your distinguishing the different categories of Women — Girls??? walking around Smith's campus. I sincerely hope you deliver the introductory speech for Women's Week next year, the year after that, etc. because as I see it you are the essence — ugh — of womanhood and every mother would love to have a daughter like you — especially with 32 teeth always showing

Sincerely,

Alpha Phi Omega is not just another fraternity, but a service fraternity. With service as our purpose, we also have personal values. You can't recognize a brother of Alpha Phi Omega just by looking at him. We have values that only the heart can see. To an underprivileged child at Christmas, we look like Santa Claus. To the lost, bewildered freshman at registration time, we look like the good samaritan. To a worried university administrator, we are an army of help or a leader unafraid to soil his hands with the clean dirt of hard work. But our only real reward will be the comfortable realization that we are doing things that will build communities, states and nations. Yes, values so rewarding and well done that some of them cannot go unmentioned. Values like those of Brother Ronald Nelson who was appointed to the National Task Force for outstanding leadership by the national president. Values that every brother of the Delta Phi Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega here at Smith displayed when we wrote our chapter song. The chapter's song is now a national song and is sung on more than 450 campuses in the United States. So when you see an Alpha Phi Omega brother, be proud, because his service and values are second to none. One of the most unique things about Alpha Phi Omega is the fact that we strive very hard to extend our brotherhood among ourselves as well as to the other existing sororities and fraternities.

In the month of October 1971, the brothers of Delta Phi Chapter here at Smith exemplified our brotherhood at our annual coronation, entitled "Alpha Phi Omega In A Soulful Mood." It was here that the lovely Miss Jacqueline Hughes was crowned as Miss Alpha Phi Omega for the year 1971-72. The brothers who are participating in some of the activities on Smith campus are as follows: Jackie Miller, member of the swimming team; Charles Johnson, Eugene Kelly, and Ronald Nelson are members of the marching band.

The service projects rendered by Alpha Phi Omega this year are as follows: helping in voter registration; sponsoring a Valentine's Day party for hospitalized children, and the fraternity is erecting an Alpha Phi Omega shrine. These service projects that were mentioned show that when all is silence, Alpha Phi Omega is still at work somewhere to help someone. "Whether day or night, we have to do it R-I-G-H-T."

"S-w-i-n-g, S-w-i-n-g, S-w-i-n-g, P-h-i, Who's that? Swing Phil!"

On April 4, 1969 twelve ambitious black sisters of Winston-Salem State University founded a new and rapidly growing social fellowship for young women. They are the Groove Chapter of Swing Phi Swing Social Fellowship, Inc.

The sisters of the Golden Chapter of Johnson C. Smith, the second chapter established on April 7, 1970, are devoted to the main and foremost objectives of unity among all people, the promotion of black women in all aspects of life, and rendering service to the community. Evidence of this can be seen as these young ladies express and follow through with their ideas.

Swings have contributed their willingness, time, and effort during the 1971-72 school year by: participating in the 1972 Cerebral Palsy Campaign, tutoring in the neighborhood schools, registering voters in the Charlotte area, volunteering at the Charlotte Mental Health Clinic (weekly observation), contributing to the children in the Campus Day Care Center at Thanksgiving, and sponsoring their annual White and Black Ball for the purpose of establishing a scholarship fund to assist a needy black senior student each year who wishes to further his education.

The following sisters have been honored as 1971-72 queens: Anita Gail Hinsley — Miss Johnson C. Smith; Gwendolyn Edwards — Miss U.N.C.F.; Jomare Bowers — Miss Physical Education & attendant to Miss Senior; Patricia Stevens — Miss Groove Phi Groove; Lynda Duncan — Miss Swing Phi Swing; Debra Dry — Miss Liston Hall.

Outstanding accomplishments have been attained by: Carlenia Graham — First runnerup to Miss Black North Carolina (1971); Anita Gail Hinsley — Who's Who.

"Swing will strive to give this fellowship a lasting life."

“Action Is Our Bag”

The young women of Gamma Delta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated have taken leading roles in carrying on the Smith tradition of excellence in every phase of University life.

The forty Sorors of Gamma Delta Chapter were honored as the Greek letter organization with the highest scholastic average for the school term 1970-71.

To carry out the sorority motto of "service to all mankind," the Sorors sponsored the United Appeal Campaign on campus in conjunction with Alpha Lambda Omega, the Graduate Chapter. Contributions of food were made to needy families during the Thanksgiving season. Donations were made to the University, the UNCF, Cleveland Job Corps Center for Women, and the March of Dimes.

Campus offices held by Sorors include:

Linda Lockhart - President, SCA, Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Arba Hall - President, English Club; Secretary, Senior Class; Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Metter Collins - Secretary, Junior Class; Treasurer, Sanders Hall Council; Mid-Atlantic Regional Scholarship Award Recipient, Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

KAPPA

Dynamic Zeta!!

"Small, but mighty!" can well be a slogan to characterize Kappa Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

Founded on January 16, 1920, on the campus of Howard University, Washington, D.C., Zeta Phi Beta Sorority has spread nationally and internationally. Finer womanhood, scholarship, service, and high ideals are the aims of this profound organization.

Our projects include helping the neighborhood disadvantaged, raising funds for the March of Dimes, contributing to the library fund, and others.

Amid these changing times and the revolts against the established order which characterize these times, the urge for group conformity seems to be a thing of the past. But these eight girls truly express an enlightenment in their ability to get along with each other and their fellow Smithites.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Founded 1913

“Delta Sigma Theta!” Through the years, it has proven itself to be more than the name of an organization. The fifty sorors comprising Gamma Lambda Chapter are more than honored to rank among more than 50,000 women who today are actively involved in social action programs designed to make communities more responsive to the needs of the people; in America toward her promises of freedom, opportunity and dignity for her citizens; and the deprived and oppressed more aware of their worth and potential.

As a predominantly black sorority, Delta Sigma Theta has been devoted to public service since its founding. The record clearly indicates that these women not only have the courage to lead and the strength to achieve, but also the commitment to serve. Through its Tutorial Program, Gamma Lambda strives to provide necessary assistance and guidance to young children in the immediate community. The Annual Toy Dance simplifies our concern for individuals whose Christmas for one reason or the other cannot be as fulfilling or enjoyable as others. Also vital in our attempt to promote service is the Annual Carnival and the Service Day in the University Dining Hall. Future service projects focus on volunteer work with children of a mental clinic and children's home.

Johnnie Goodwin

The Delta-Omega Coronation whose theme was "Step Into the World of Delta and Omega" and the Debutante Ball sponsored by the Charlotte Graduate Chapter are two yearly functions which make the social calendar of our sorority an exciting and enjoyable one. In attendance at the 31st National Convention in Houston, Texas during the summer were sorors Phyllis Thompson and Sherian Davis. Both returned eager to share knowledge that would continue to enhance ideals in the tradition of the sorority.

He is presently working at the Business Development Center as a student bookkeeper. Ronald Hatcher and Mack McRae are representatives to the Radical Missions.

Our involvement even exceeds the community. Benjamin Rawlins served as an intern in Washington, D.C. with Senator Edward Kennedy and the National Welfare Rights Organization.

In achieving our aims the Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha are working together to bring about University unity. We believe the best way to achieve this is by maintaining an attitude of impartiality toward Greeks as well as Non-Greeks alike. We look upon every man as a Brother.

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity is the crystallization of a dream. It is the beautiful realization of a vision shared commonly by our founders, with "Achievement" as a main objective.

Alpha Epsilon Chapter was established at Johnson C. Smith on December 10, 1927. Since that time the members of AE have strived to keep our goals congruent with the basic idea that Kappa Alpha Psi was founded on.

The fraternity has performed a host of service projects. Alpha Epsilon is instrumental in helping to conduct a daily tutorial program at Friendship Baptist Church. This Program is designed primarily to aid junior and senior high school students who are experiencing difficulties in their school work. Another one of our main projects which is in conjunction with the national service project of Kappa is the Kappa Leadership Instructional League, which is designed to give young boys the incentive and knowledge to become better men and more productive citizens.

Perhaps one of the most distinguishing features of AE is its heavy social calendar. This year's social calendar included the coronation of Miss Kappa Alpha Psi and the Krimson and Kream Ball.

There is no domain restricting the magnitude of achievement by the brothers of Alpha Epsilon Chapter. The brothers are active in all phases of church, school and community activities. Several brothers have contributed outstanding achievement to the university such as Lee Coble in track and James Barksdale, James Peters and Allen Munson in the

OMEGA PSI PHI

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated was founded at Howard University on November 17, 1911 by four men of initiative and foresight, who saw this newly formed organization becoming a common bond for over 50,000 black men in every field of endeavor.

Since then, these four men, Brothers Edgar A. Love, Oscar J. Cooper, Frank W. Coleman, and Ernest E. Just have seen their dream of worldwide brotherhood for black men grow beyond even their foresightedness.

Here at Johnson C. Smith University, the Fraternity is well represented by the fine young men of Rho Chapter which was founded in 1929.

These Omega men try to display the four cardinal principles of manhood, scholarship, perseverance, and uplift in all they strive to accomplish.

Rho Chapter sponsors each year a scholarship drive, community projects; such as food baskets to the poor, and parties for underprivileged children. These and other events benefit both the campus and the community as a whole.

Among these young men of action are Matthew Holland and Michael Lindsey of Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities; William Cameron, President of the Junior Class; and Steve Joyner, the brilliant player of the Golden Bulls basketball team.

Omega has taught the men of Rho Chapter well. Now and in the future of J.C.S.U. these young men will continue to hold high the Fraternity's ideas which make them strong.

The Will To Know — Ronald Ruffin

I am Black, proud, wild, and free!
I wish only that my people could see
That the will to know
Can set you free.
I know when I'm right;
I know when I'm wrong,
I know my weaknesses, and
Knowing makes me strong.
 The Black Revolution won't make you free.
 What I'm about to tell you
 Is what you must see.
I'll not die in Revolution
Trying to get free.
I've already reached the stage
Of Equality!
I'll not die for those cats
Who pretend they're Black,
Who sell me down the river
And laugh behind my back.
I'll not die for the pimps and hustlers
Who have you wondering
Who is me, who is you, wondering
Who is taking off who.
If Black Revolution comes to a war
I'll not stand and take a fall;
I will fight to protect my life
Cause whitey'll be out to get us all.
I have my convictions, conceptions, beliefs,
I know my friends and enemies,
I know my joys and griefs;
I know this Society demands of me
My manhood, my mind, my youth—
I demand from Society the will to be free,
To find out for myself, the Truth.
 And this, my people, is what you must see —
 The will to know will make you free!

It wasn't the results of my efforts alone; it took the effort of a renowned staff and many other considerate individuals.

I cannot begin to thank the ones who have helped to make the book the success we know it is!!! One cannot help praising himself because others find it hard to do. To the members of my staff, may I take this time to record my many thanks, for without you I would have failed. May this record of thanks ever be a part of your lives.

To the Senior Class, I thank you for bestowing upon me the esteemed honor of Editor-in-Chief. It is my hope that you will for months to come enjoy the recorded events that were made this year and that you shall treasure this, your final copy of THE BULL.

Special thanks also go to Pamela Floyd, although she has left us, her heart was still with the production of this annual and with its success.

I'm sure that as you browse through, you will find errors. "But remember there is but one perfect being — God Almighty!" With this, I bid you farewell.

I do my thing, and you do your things.

I am not in this world to live up to your expectations.

And you are not in this world to live up to mine.

You are you and I am I.

and if by chance we find each other,

IT'S BEAUTIFUL

. . . Frederick S. Perls
